PREFACE

There are 157,153 children in 47 States who are receiving more than $45 million in Federal aid for migrant education programs under Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

This book lists consultants who are knowledgeable and available to help State and local educational agencies develop plans and approaches--short-range and long-range--to effectively educate these children of migratory agricultural workers.

John F. Hughes, Director
Division of Compensatory Education
Bureau of Elementary and Secondary Education

INSTRUCTIONS

How to Obtain Services of Consultants:

State Consultants: Contact the Title I Migrant Coordinator of the State in which the consultant resides. He will provide information about the experience of the consultant, his availability, and fees.

National Consultants: You may contact national consultants directly. The Title I Migrant Coordinator of the State in which the consultant resides should be informed when the consultant is employed.

Procedure for Updating Consultant Lists:

An updated list will be published whenever a substantial number of additions or deletions are submitted by State Title I Migrant Coordinators.
